

LOOKING FOR SOMETHING DIFFERENT IN MEDICAL COMMUNICATIONS?

After 10 years of significant growth, the Fishawack Group is now one of the largest independent medical communications agencies. It is the mix of individuals united by a single philosophy that underpins the 'Fishawack difference' of excellence, creativity and fun.

Due to continued success across the Group, we now have openings for experienced medical/regulatory writers and editorial project leaders/delivery team leaders across our Fishawack and PHOCUS offices in the UK, Switzerland and USA.

Experienced Medical or Regulatory Writers

Basel, Switzerland (PHOCUS)

Knutsford, Cheshire / Abingdon, Oxfordshire, UK (Fishawack)

North Wales, PA, USA (Fishawack); Lambertville, NJ, USA (PHOCUS)

Are you an established medical or regulatory writer seeking your next career development opportunity? Are you passionate about communicating science across a range of therapy areas and for different audiences? Do you thrive on working as part of a dynamic internal team?

We are looking for experienced individuals with a life-science background, a strong team focus and a keen commitment to delivering editorial excellence, to join our teams in PHOCUS or Fishawack.

Editorial Project Leaders / Delivery Team Leaders
