

HRA Pharma is a privately-owned European pharmaceutical company that develops and markets innovative products in the fields of reproductive health and endocrinology.

Headquartered in Paris (France), HRA Pharma has a strong international activity. Its subsidiaries are located in Germany, the United Kingdom, France, Italy, Spain and the United States.

MEDICAL WRITER

Position based in Paris.

Within the Research and Development department, you will be in charge of the written production of scientific/medical documents used in clinical/preclinical studies and medical-marketing activities.

Your main responsibilities will be :

- Write and edit clinical/preclinical study protocols, amendments and reports,
- Elaborate and edit investigator's brochures and product monographs,
- Write and edit clinical/preclinical parts of dossiers for registration, pricing and reimbursement of drugs (including preparation of responses to regulatory authorities),
- Write and edit medical texts such as abstracts, posters and manuscripts for publication,
- Develop and edit medical communication tools, including slide presentations.

Your profile:

University degree (PhD/MD) in medicine, natural or health sciences, or pharmacy.

Prior medical writing experience within healthcare industry (>2 years).

Excellent written and verbal communication skills.

Computer literacy (Word, PowerPoint).

contact@hra-pharma.com

<http://www.hra-pharma.com>

15 rue Béranger 75003 PARIS