

Two medical writer positions available in the South of France

Scinopsis is a small, friendly, English-speaking medical writing company based in the South of France (in Fréjus, half-way between Cannes and St Tropez). We provide medical writing services in English to pharmaceutical companies, CROs, and scientists worldwide. Our services include:

- Regulatory documents - clinical study reports, protocols, investigators' brochures, patient narratives, clinical CTD modules
- Medical communications - scientific publications, abstracts, posters, slide presentations, conference reports
- Other - quality control, editing, proofreading, medical translations (French to English)

Scinopsis is currently expanding and we are looking for two medical writers to join our team. Applicants should fulfill the following requirements:

- Medical/scientific qualification
- Excellent written English with impeccable spelling and grammar
- Ability to interpret scientific data
- Ability to summarise and to write clear and concise text
- Close attention to detail
- Excellent communication skills
- Ability to manage several different projects at the same time
- Ability to meet tight deadlines
- Good computer skills (Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Outlook)
- Friendly attitude and a good sense of humour

In addition, the desire and commitment to live in the South of France are essential.

Medical writing experience and French language skills would be advantageous, but are not strict requirements.

Both positions are full-time (35h/week) and office-based. Salary will depend on previous medical writing experience, and will include health insurance and 25 days holiday per year.

How to apply

To apply, please send an application letter and CV in English by email to the address below by Friday 27th August 2010 at the latest.
