

EMWA Newsblast - June 2020

[MC:TOC]

EMWA Conference Announcement

The November conference is not cancelled. Instead we will be holding a virtual conference. More information to come soon!

#EMWATogetherApart Initiative

In June EMWA launches the #EMWATogetherApart Initiative on our EMWA Social Media Channels. We aim to provide a digital platform to the medical communications community where we can share valuable information that helps us during the COVID-19 crisis.

We Honor Our Volunteers

In addition to our #EMWATogetherApart Initiative, we wish to raise awareness of and give credits to all EMWA volunteers. We aim to post a THANK YOU message on our Social Media channels, highlighting individual EMWA volunteers, on a daily basis. We hope to enhance online visibility and strengthen our community spirit. We kindly ask you to support your peers by spreading the word, liking and sharing the provided information under #EMWATogetherApart.

If you are an EMWA volunteer, please send your picture to info@emwa.org. We will mention the volunteers in the sequence we receive your pictures.

Sustainability!

We feel that as a professional organisation of medical communicators and healthcare professionals, EMWA should take a more active role in supporting the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals which strive to improve planetary health. Now, thanks to the Executive Committee's approval, the Sustainability-SIG (SUS-SIG for short) is looking for your support to develop communication platforms and guidelines on the respectful usage of our digital-, human-, and planetary-resources.

For more information, have a look at:

Member: Raquel Billiones

The EMWA Expert Seminar Series (ESS) will go virtual!

Come and join us for EMWA's first virtual Expert Seminar Series (ESS) on medical devices

Date: Tuesday, 9 June 2020, from 9:30 to 12:00 CET. Click here to learn more about the programme and register.

The MDR application date may have been postponed by one year but the requirements are as stringent as ever. This virtual ESS addresses topics that are highly relevant for MDR-readiness.

EPDC News

EMWA Professional Development Committee (EPDC): we're very pleased to welcome Raquel Billiones as a member of the education committee and Tania Puvirajesinghe who has joined the webinar team.

The EPDC is considering options for workshops in light of the cancellation of the face-to-face conference in November and will keep you updated. In the meantime, keep up to date with our webinar programme.

Webinar Programme News

On Thursday 18th June at 14:00 CEST we'll have a webinar about "PMCF Plans and Reports: Frequently asked questions" by Dr. Katharina Friedrich, Medical Writer, Clinical Affairs, BD Interventional- Peripheral Intervention.

Please click here to register.

Spanish Translation of the Joint Position Statement

on Predatory Journals

We are proud to announce the posting of the first JPS translation into Spanish by Yvonne Westermaier and Kevin Pinto Gil. In order to access the translation please click here.

If you are interested in volunteering please to do a translation of this JPS contact Abe Shevack (aspscientist@gmail.com).

Ambassador's Programme

On 19 May Gauri Jawdekar-Abraham gave a virtual presentation on careers in medical writing, her own experience in the profession and the benefits of joining EMWA for PhD students and post-docs at the German Cancer Research Institute as part of their Career Coffee series. This was first virtual presentation held by the EMWA Ambassador's Programme. Gauri's presentation went over very well and the most of the participants expressed interested in finding out more about medical writing job opportunities.

Abe Shevack has been provisionally invited to give an introductory presentation on EMWA at a course on medical writing that is to be held at the Parexel Academy in Berlin (26 Aug).

If you are interested in finding out more about the Ambassador's Programme or possibly volunteering please contact Abe Shevack (aspscientist@gmail.com) or Head Office (info@emwa.org).
